MUSEUM OF ARCHITECTURE IN WROCLAW

Bernardyńska 5, tel 71 344 82 79
ma.wroc.pl muzeum@ma.wroc.pl

18:00–24:00

The most important event will be viewing art by the renowned artist Leon Tarasewicz. The works from different creative periods of the artist were supplemented by the paintings and light installations designed specially for the museum's space. You are also welcome to view an exhibition devoted to the Regained Land in Wrocław and the exhibition of medieval and modern age building models from the museum's collections. For children and their parents/guardians we have prepared an outdoor quest "Architectural treasures."

18:00 Opening of Museum Night.

18:00–24:00 Exhibition viewing of the permanent and temporary exhibits "Architectonic artistic technique from the 12th to the 20th century."

 18:00–22:00 Outdoor game (children from 6 years old).

 18:00–24:00 Quest "Architectural treasures" (children from 7 years old).

16:00–24:00

Museum Night at the Ethnography Museum will be spent in the mood of a wedding reception. The evening will start with the exhibition opening "Wedding reception 21" and curator-guided tours. Next, everyone will start dancing to the music of a wedding DJ. The younger ones will take part in a photo session with wedding props and take a photo to commemorate the visit to the Museum. Simultaneously, there will be art workshops devoted to forgotten wedding accessories.

👤👤 16:00–17:30 Activities for children between the ages of 5 to 12 years old:

- viewing of the exhibition "Wedding reception 21,"
- wedding reception-style photo session,
- art activity "A stick (but not for beating), a crown (but not for a king) and woniaczka (and what is that?)."

18:00 Exhibition opening "Wedding reception 21."

19:30 Curator-led tour of the exhibition.

21:00–24:00 A musical evening – fun with a wedding DJ.

We all know that the illustrations in children's books play an important role, but more and more often they are placed at the same level as the text. The work of illustrators is then incredibly important and its effects we will be able to admire at the exhibition "I read here" addressed to both children and adults. The exhibition was created with the cooperation of the National Art Gallery and the Book Institute and presents works by 14 Polish illustrators e.g. Edgar Bąk, Katarzyna Bogucka, Iwona Chmielewska, Emilia Dziubak.

14:00–22:00 "I read here" – contemporary Polish illustration for children.

 15:00–18:00 "Fantastic insects and birds-of-paradise in the Wonderland of Henry Rousseau" – workshop (children 6–12 years old).

“EnergyIProcessIMatter.”

The exhibition is a manifesto of Wrocław’s artists: Eugeniusz Minciel, Lech Twardowski, Urszula Wilk, Izabela Chamczyk, Radek Ślany the representatives of the abstract current influenced by expression. Their art is a process of struggling with the matter of painting, spontaneous painterly gesture, the freedom of creative work, pulsating energy – painting. Each of them has their own vision of art, although they are close to similar principles. One thing is for sure, they consistently paint together, creating a Wrocław painting tradition.
