

68%

of the contents in mixed waste bins are recyclable materials that can be recovered.

How to do it? Sort your waste!

Paper:

- ✓ paper packaging
- ✓ cardboard
- ✓ printed or written-on paper sheets
- ✓ notebooks, printed newspapers
- ✗ milk and beverages packaging
- ✗ tissues and paper towels
- ✗ paper with foil (e.g. flyers)
- ✗ greasy and dirty paper
- ✗ used hygiene products

Bio:

- ✓ vegetable and fruit peelings
- ✓ food leftovers, bread, eggshells
- ✓ leaves, flowers, grass, shredded branches
- ✓ coffee grounds and tea leaves
- ✗ bones
- ✗ animal excrements
- ✗ hair
- ✗ used cotton buds
- ✗ paper and soil

Glass:

- ✓ bottles
- ✓ jars
- ✓ glass packaging
- ✓ perfume bottles
- ✗ ceramic and porcelain dishes
- ✗ mirrors and broken glazing
- ✗ light bulbs
- ✗ candles with wax

Mixed waste:

For all non-recyclable waste, such as:

- ✓ diapers, hygiene products, animal excrements
- ✓ ceramics, porcelain
- ✓ receipts, greasy paper
- ✓ vacuum cleaner waste, hair, fur
- ✓ cigarette butts
- ✓ bones, animal leftovers, gravel/ wood shavings from litter trays for animals

Metal and Plastic:

- ✓ plastic containers
- ✓ milk and juice cartons
- ✓ jar lids
- ✓ polystyrene foam
- ✓ cans
- ✓ bags and plastic bags
- ✓ aluminium foil
- ✗ dirty polystyrene foam
- ✗ medicine packaging
- ✗ household appliances and electronics
- ✗ used batteries
- ✗ paint and glue containers

Civic Amenity Sites (Polish: PSZOK):

- ✓ waste electrical and electronic equipment
- ✓ batteries
- ✓ medicines
- ✓ furniture
- ✓ construction materials

Want to learn more about waste sorting? Visit:

www.wro.news/waste-campaign